

Design Engineer

Crenlo, a metal designer/fabricator/assembler of cabs for agricultural/construction equipment and enclosures for the electronics industry in Rochester, MN has an opening for a Design Engineer. Crenlo's design team functions as an integral part of the vehicle design team for major OEM development programs, applying a broad variety of structural and automotive processes.

Position is responsible for the management of cab design programs. Including design of protective structures, glass door mechanisms, interior plastic and trim components. Mechanical Engineering degree or equivalent experience required. Three to five years experience with a P.E. license a plus. Experience with ProEngineer and Microsoft Office products is required, advanced skills are a plus. Candidate must possess good communication and problem solving skills.

Crenlo employs over 700 employees in two plants in Rochester, MN. Rochester, MN is a professional community that has been ranked by Money magazine in the past as one of the best places to live.

Interested and area applicants can send resumes and salary requirements to: Crenlo, Attn: Human Resources, 1600 4th Avenue NW, Rochester, MN 55901. Fax: (507) 280-2350. Tele: (507) 287-3614. E-mail: hr@crenlo.com. ISO 9001 / EOE. www.crenlo.com.